

The “SUDLER SHIELD”
International Marching Band Award
Administered by the John Philip Sousa Foundation

2018 “Small High School Division” NOMINATION FORM - please print clearly

In November of 2016, a Small High School Category was added to the Sudler Shield International Marching Band Award. The John Philip Sousa Foundation is adding this category to recognize the exemplary teaching being done at the small school level. To be considered for this award, the marching band must be a 9-12 grade high school, enrollment of the high school must be 1099 students or below (if other grades are used (pulled up), the school enrollment of those grades must also be included in the 1099 count). The enrollment must be verified by the high school principal’s signature at the time of this application. All other application requirements for the Sudler Shield will be used in determining recipients of this prestigious new award.
